Camden Wastewater Bid Opening

September 25, 2008

Camden Community Center

7:00 pm

The bid opening for the Camden Wastewater Project was called to order at 7:01 by Council President Peter Wagoner. Present were Council Member Richard Fite, Clerk-Treasurer Pat Casserly, Utility Superintendent Jerry Snavely, Ken Smith of Municipal Civil Corp and five representatives from the bidding contractors. Council Member Andy Kelly was absent.

Mr. Wagoner stated the purpose of the public meeting was to open the bids for the wastewater treatment project and review the bids for completeness. The bids were then opened by Mr. Wagoner. He read the base bid and two alternatives aloud with the cost being recorded by the Clerk-Treasurer. Mr. Fite made the motion to take the bids under advisement and have them reviewed by the town's attorney and engineer. Motion passed.

The contractors were thanked for their interest in the project. Mr. Wagoner went on to state the town was looking forward to working with the contractor who would be awarded the project.

Meeting adjourned at 7:15
